

Covenant Cares and Shares

Just in time for Christmas, a donation of school supplies was made to the Leathers/Meachem Head Start Center from the Covenant Presbyterian Evangelism Committee. Elder Frank Meachem made the presentation to Center Director LaDrenna Jackson. Among items were pens, pencils, rulers, markers, and an information card about Covenant. Additionally, Frank and Sandra Meachem provided gift cards to the dedicated staff.

The Leathers/Meachem Head Start Center serves children ages three to five years old and is located at 908 Liberty St. in Durham, North Carolina.
